

As a satellite radio listener, I oppose the efforts to remove desirable localized content from the public airwaves. Providing Local Weather, Traffic and emergency services via any means, including digital providers, is in the public interest and should not be restricted.